"I use Zingerman's any time I want to impress my clients, friends or even myself. I'm never disappointed!"

LINDA, FAIRFAX, VA

"Zingerman's is the gold standard. We've done holiday gifts with Saks, Anthropologie, Dean and DeLuca, ABC Carpet and Home...Zingerman's is always the easiest to work with, the most reliable (i.e. everything makes it there on time, with the correct card), and we really believe people enjoy receiving their treats from Zingerman's more than anything else."

WEEKENDER GIFT BOXES

Our top selling gift box for friends and family is, perhaps not surprisingly, our top seller for businesses too. We have this crazy idea that we should send the same food to our client as we would to grandma. The problem is, with most business gift companies you can't. The food you find for corporate gifts is drastically different than what humans normally eat. It's got dumbed down flavor. Shrunken little jars of mysterious goo. Scary old popcorn. Waxy chocolate.

The Weekender suffers none of those problems. It's packed full of foods I keep at home on a regular basis and sweets I like to eat when I'm in the mood. They're all full sized versions, full of flavor. When you send this to a client it never looks like you skimmed, never looks like you cut corners.

Each version comes packed in a colorful, cartoon gift box.

Most gift baskets are terrible. These are great.

RECURRING GIFTS

WHEN ONE GIFT ISN'T ENOUGH...

Sometimes, sending a single gift isn't enough. From sending annual gifts for employee or client birthdays, work anniversaries, or wedding anniversaries, to sending thank you, prospection, or referral gifts as they come along, we're ready to help. Our team of concierges handles it all, from helping you select what to send to data entry to including any branded or otherwise customized gear.

Birthday and Anniversary Gifts

Recognize birthdays, work anniversaries, wedding anniversaries, or whatever other annual occasions are meaningful to your employees or clients. We'll help you select a standard gift, or build your own tiered collection of items. You'll share the list of folks you want to celebrate, and we'll make sure your gifts arrive in time for the big day, with any special messaging or merch you'd like to include. As for what to send, here are a few ideas to kick things off.

HAPPIEST BIRTHDAY GIFT BOX

CINNFUL CINNAMON ROLLS

Almost anyone can make a cinnamon roll smell good while it's baking, even among the cell phone kiosks at the mall. Unfortunately, most have little more than aroma to offer. You won't taste much beyond sugar and cinnamon. The real challenge is to fashion a cinnamon roll that tastes as good as it smells. These fit the bill. Warm them up, break one open and put your nose up close. You'll smell sweet butter, Indonesian cinnamon, real vanilla. But the real treat is next. Take one bite. That's all you'll need to forget the litany of cinnamon roll disappointments life has dealt you. Comes with serving instructions.

Client Thank You Gifts

A common gift for realtors and financial advisors to send after closing a deal or while building relationships. We often include a business card or a handwritten note on custom stationery. As for what to send, here are a couple of ideas you might consider.

APPRECIATION GIFT BOX

Hearing “thanks!” is nice. Eating “thanks!” is even better. Show your colleagues how much you appreciate them for that time they got all hands on deck to grab that low-hanging fruit, or for consistently circling back to thinking outside the box, or for their laser beam focus on herding all those cats with synergy. Our fun, colorful gift box comes stuffed with a no-nut Black Magic Brownie, a Date & Pistachio Mamoul Cookie, and three Zingerman's Mini Cookies: Oatmeal Raisin, Ginger Molasses, and Lemon.

Prospecting and Referral Gifts

A common gift for sales representatives looking to secure an initial phone call with prospective clients, or to thank someone for setting up a referral. We can keep your branding front and center so that you're remembered long after the last bite. As for what to send, many folks choose small, punny gift: say, something your recipient will go nuts or bananas for.

BANANA BREADS

Two flavorful takes on banana bread, made with freshly milled flour. Each loaf serves 5–7 and comes in a colorful, cartooned gift box. The Classic Banana Bread has no nuts. Chocolate Chunk has—you guessed it—huge pieces of really good chocolate.

ZINGERMAN'S SPICED PECANS

Pecans toasted with butter, lots of freshly ground Tellicherry black pepper, Jamaican allspice, ground ginger, cloves and more. The nuts cluster together in little caramelly-spicy handfuls, making it way too easy to eat too many. I recommend two: one tin for personal snacking and another for easy sharing with a crowd.

THE COFFEE CAKE THAT CHANGED THE GAME

"DUE TO CURRENT BUSINESS TRENDS 99% OF OUR AGENDA TIME WILL BE SPENT EATING COFFEE CAKE."

OUR BEST SELLERS

Coffee cakes have been our best selling gift since we started mailing food in the early 1990s. Having tried a truckload of coffee cakes in the past two decades I can say quite honestly that I haven't tasted one I like better. I think the same goes for a lot of our customers—many folks return year after year to send this gift and this gift only. It's substantial, it's honest, it's straightforward, and it's really good. I guarantee you really can taste the difference.

THE ICING IS NOT ON THE CAKE

Zingerman's coffee cake is made without icing. This makes it look like an oddball compared to most coffee cakes out there. Nothing against icing—I like a cupcake as much as the next person—but too many times icing is a ruse. It's an atmospheric distraction. It diverts your attention from the sub-par ingredients that make the mass below. Plus, for many folks, me included, it's too sweet. Our coffee cake tastes like rich sour cream, butter, toasted walnuts and cinnamon. There's just enough sweetness, which makes it go down easily, especially with coffee.

WHAT ABOUT THAT PAN?

You can't make a Zingerman's coffee cake without a bundt-style pan, the pan with the hole in the middle. It conducts heat to the interior of the cake—if the hole wasn't there, the middle would stay raw and collapse in a soggy puddle. The bundt pan we know was created by Nordic Ware in Minnesota in the 1950s at the request of Rose Joshua and Fannie Schanfield, two members of Minneapolis's Hadassah Jewish women's group, who were nostalgic for dense European cakes.

WHAT IS ZINGERMAN'S, ANYWAY?

Zingerman's Deli opened in March of 1982 with a staff of two, a small selection of great tasting specialty foods, a host of traditional Jewish dishes and a short sandwich menu.

Today Zingerman's is a family of small food-related companies in Ann Arbor, Michigan. We focus on traditionally made full flavored foods — making them and finding them. We are funky, fun and sometimes a little strange. Most of all, we love to share great food with everyone.
